Special Master Cohen,

As discussed with Plaintiffs on the phone call (which to my knowledge Mr. Mougey did not attend), these agenda items are properly removed from the agenda and both Walgreens and Cuyahoga will be producing documents shortly as a result. We disagree with Mr. Mougey's characterization, but there is no need to address that further here. I only emphasize that we reached agreement after a series of very productive and professional exchanges, and we look forward to continuing to work with Plaintiffs in this type of cooperative manner in the future.

Thank you,

Sharon

I don't mean to be Debbie Downer on a Saturday Morning, but before congrats are in order we have only made a very small step forward. The parties have agreed to weekly calls, a renewed request for WAG to yet again review withheld documents based on previous orders etc. Please stay tuned for the year-old WAG min-series re its 16k docs withheld on its PL and whether we there is change in pace and scope.

Special Master Cohen,

By means of an update, the parties have resolved agenda items 252, 232, and 253 regarding outstanding privilege challenges. Each party reserves the right to raise good faith requests to the other regarding redactions once the downgrades are produced.

Thank you and have a nice weekend,

Sharon
